(Project still in the works, info. subject to change - 4-28-06)

Please note:

I do not consider myself a professional genealogist. This is a hobby for me. I do not claim that all the information is correct or cited properly.

In genealogy you are never at the final destination. It is always a snap-shot; next moment you might know more or something has changed. That is why any comment, further information or additional story is cordially invited. If somewhere I have made a mistake or fatal error, please let me know. When giving new information, so a correction or an addition can be made, please include in writing the correct info. and include pictures, etc. to backup the correction or addition. (Most of the info. gathered was from Census records, trips to Hist. Societies, cemeteries, Rootsweb.com, Ancestry.com, family members and various other materials found on the internet and various other places.)

Please feel free to email or mail me pictures or other items. I feel pictures help to make the family tree more complete.

For privacy reasons for all living individual, I label this information confidential.

I hope you enjoy this family affair as much as I did preparing it.
